MONTANA AMBASSADORS: MAKING THE DIFFERENCE!

Governor Welcomes Outdoor Company to Montana— Highlights Teamwork with Montana Ambassadors Outreach

In a recent press release, Governor Brian Schweitzer welcomed Sitka Gear to Bozeman. The outdoor company relocated to Montana from Napa, California earlier this month. Sitka is a leading manufacturer of high-performance hunting apparel that utilizes cutting-edge technology to keep hunters warm, dry and comfortable in any condition.

“This was a great team recruitment effort through our Montana Ambassadors program,” said Schweitzer. “When I spoke to Sitka Business Leader Kevin Sloan at an event put together through our Montana Ambassador Outreach program and laid out our competitive business climate, unparalleled outdoor recreation and community support, you could see they knew it was the right move.”

Lynda Colucci and Gov. Schweitzer, California Outreach

The Montana Ambassadors program first reached out to Sitka Gear in February about the opportunities available in Montana. The contact came about through Montana Ambassador Lynda Colucci, who organized an outreach gathering with key Bay Area business leaders, Montana Ambassadors and Governor Schweitzer.

Prospera Business Network, the local economic development organization based in Bozeman, continued the recruitment effort with multiple follow-ups, information and relocation packets assisted by Ken Richardson and Chris Ageson. The company officially announced the relocation on August 5th.

“Governor Schweitzer is a convincing guy. Bozeman is a great community and has an outdoor lifestyle that reflects our products - it was an easy decision. We are excited to be part of the Montana business community,” said Kevin Sloan, Business Leader.

Sitka Gear released a short video about why they are thrilled to be in Bozeman.

The Governor's Office of Economic Development (GOED) works hand-in-hand with Montana Ambassadors on the Outreach Program. GOED lends support with outreach in the areas of the Montana Ambassador Business Open, Out-of-State Outreach, i.e., Pacific Northwest Chapter and California Chapter as well as with the Montana Ambassador Annual Conference.

Message from your President:

RICK EDWARDS

Rick Edwards
also served as President in 2006.

Well, the kids are back in school, and our beautiful autumn season is in full bloom. This has been a very busy summer, and many folks took advantage of the amenities that our State has to offer. Unfortunately, weather conditions delayed our onset of summer, and the fires impacted some of the areas of the state. Both impacted tourism and scarred some of our beautiful forestlands. But, Montanan's are resilient and continually looking to make lemonade out of lemons!

From an Ambassador perspective, I am excited. Our 7th Annual Business Open Golf Tournament was a rousing success. Over 60 golfers participated, and we saw the Grizzly Golfers (representing the Missoula Chapter) walk away with the low gross honors and NorthWestern Energy #1 (representing the Kalispell Chapter) repeat as the low net winner. I would be remiss if I failed to acknowledge the Tournament Coordinating Committee which included Dale Mahugh, Lisa Perry, Chantel McCormick, Gloria O'Rourke, and Heather Bellamy for their efforts to make the tourney a success. I would also like to thank all of our hole sponsors and prize donors for supporting the event, especially Alaska Airlines for our grand prize and Thompson Distributing, Sun Mountain Sports, Helena Comfort Suites, PPL Montana, Grasslands Renewable Energy, NorthWestern Energy, and Big Sky Resort for the other great prizes. Mark your calendars, and plan to attend the 8th Annual Business Open on August 16, 2012 at the Old Works Golf Course.

I know that I am singing to the choir, but I must emphasize that Montana is a great place to do business and to raise a family. Many of you probably noted many of the accolades that the State has received. A few examples include Forbes' recognition of Montana as the 'Fastest Climber' in the category of Most Business Friendly State in the nation. Also, the US Department of Commerce and the US Chamber of Commerce Foundation recognized Montana as the #1 state for entrepreneurship and overall business start-up activity.

In closing, we are now accepting nominations for the many awards that are presented during our Annual Meeting in February. The awards are for outstanding businesses, entrepreneurs, ambassadors, and educators. The form is included in this newsletter. Throughout this great state, we have many outstanding candidates for these awards. I encourage you to take a minute and nominate someone that you feel is worthy of the awards.
